

I am very opposed to any further deployment of BPL technology. The currently demonstrated RF interference that it causes on the HF and low VHF bands is totally unacceptable. The Commission should protect the interests of licensed services using the HF & low VHF spectrum.